

LIST OF ITEMS TO BRING WHEN ON A DRIVING TRIP

LouiseSattler.com

- Spare Tire - checked and ready to use. Also, FIX A FLAT in a can for quick emergency repairs.
- Chains for tires, in the event of lots of snow- if you are traveling through snowy regions.
- Emergency lights.
- Blanket
- Water and lots of it.
- Emergency medical supplies - including an api-pen or something for an allergic reaction.
- Emergency radio.
- A book of maps, such as Rand MacNally. DO NOT depend on "Mr. Google Maps" to guide you. (See story in next blog for this lesson learned!)
- Your cars information guide, including what kind of coolant you use.
- Spare key to give to your driving partner.
- Snacks that are healthy (a cooler is a good "addition").
- Raincoat or poncho.
- Flashlight (check batteries).
- Cords for your phone to recharge while driving.
- Change of clothes easily accessible.
- Holder for extra items.
- Comfortable car seat cover
- Lumbar support, such as Therma Rest Lumbar Support
- Download audible books, bring trivia games, and have a good satellite radio.
